

Committed to Our Calling

Let's Go
Mark 6:1-6
6-6-21

I. Stay Committed (Mark 6:1)

II. Stay Away (Mark 6:2-5)

1. In Proximity (vs. 2)
2. Astonished (vs. 2)
3. Questioning (vs. 2)
4. Doubting (vs. 3)
5. Offended (vs. 3)

III. Stay True (Mark 6:6)

Going Deeper This Week

1. Read Mark 6:1-6. What did the Lord show you about Himself or yourself?
2. Did any of your classmates surprise you at your class reunion because of the good things they had accomplished? How did you feel about it: Were you happy, proud, or skeptical?
3. Why might the people in Jesus' hometown have resented Him? Is the response of a person's hometown and family a reliable indicator of whether the "prophet" is genuine and legitimate?
4. List some of the things Jesus said and did that are astonishing. Do non-Christians acknowledge that He said and did those things?
5. How is it possible for a person to see what Jesus did and yet deny that He is the Savior, the Son of God?

6. What kinds of credentials do you expect spiritual leaders to have? Are the most important credentials where they went to school, how well-spoken they are, who recommends them, or something else?
7. Should we avoid offending people when we tell them about Jesus?
8. Are you familiar and comfortable with any “famous” person? Do you sometimes forget that other people hold them in awe? Have you become too familiar with Jesus?
9. What are some biblical examples of God or Jesus doing miracles in spite of people’s unbelief?
10. Have you ever been amazed that people don’t believe in Jesus despite the evidence? Do you sometimes display amazing lack of trust in Jesus?
