Monday – July 9, Reflecting on this past Sunday

Review the message with someone.

Read Ephesians 1:1-2 and Philippians 1:1-2. What qualified the Ephesians and Philippians to be addressed as “saints”? How would you feel if you received a letter addressing you as a saint? Would it be a sense of pride or one of humility? How do those emotions align themselves with how you came to know Christ as your Savior?

Tuesday – July 10, Reflecting on this past Sunday

Read John 1:35-42 and share what you have discovered was one of the most important things we found out about Andrew and his brother. Andrew is only mentioned 3 times in the Gospels and each time he is bringing someone to Jesus. Does this give you greater courage to share the gospel with your own family regardless of the risks?

It seemed that Jesus had a plan for Peter's life that to us had more kingdom significance than Andrew's life. Peter was certainly more popular and is still to this day. Discuss how you see that differently now that you understand how God used Andrew to take his brother to the Christ. Does anyone else's popularity make any difference as to how God uses you in His Kingdom plans?

Wednesday – July 11, Preparing for this upcoming Sunday

Read Jonah 4. Why did Jonah not want to go to his enemies? (vs 2)

What do we learn about God & His nature from this chapter?

Do you think many people see “The God of the Old Testament” the way Jonah did? Why or why not?

Thursday- July 12, Preparing for this upcoming Sunday

1. Read 2 Samuel 9. What moved David to show mercy to someone near him? (see vs. 1)

2. How did Mephibosheth see himself? (see vs. 8)

3. How are we all like Mephibosheth?

Friday- July 13, Preparing for this upcoming Sunday

1. Why is mercy so important in our arsenal to reach the world?

2. Read John 4 and see how Jesus mercifully & compassionately ministered to a woman who needed to see mercy & hear the Gospel. What stands out to you?

3. How might you engage a person in real need this week?

Saturday – July 14, Preparing for tomorrow

Pray for tomorrow’s worship together & for anyone that comes to mind that needs to experience God’s mercy. Maybe that someone is you.
